

The Greens at Greenwich and Bruce Museum Invite You To Take Another Look: Art as a Partner in Health

A Virtual Interactive Experience
Friday, October 23, 1:00 to 2:30 pm

In an unprecedented time of reflection, we will explore the universal language of art and how our health and well-being may improve from taking a closer look.

Presented "live" from the Bruce Museum's special exhibition, Floating Beauty: Women in the Art of Ukiyo-e, participants will explore art beyond culture and time as we experience a select number of pieces through a creative arts therapy lens. The Exhibition runs through November 1, 2020.

*Can we learn something of ourselves in art?
Is art, like music a universal language of the soul?*

Figure 1 Katsushika Hokusai (Japanese, 1760-1849), The Great Wave Off the Coast of Kanagawa, 1830-1831, ink on paper, 10 x 14 1/2 inches, Museum Purchase, 1930.388.1 Reading Public Museum, Reading, Pennsylvania

PRESENTERS

Corinne Flax
Manager of School &
Community Partnerships
Bruce Museum

Maria Scaros
Executive Director
The Greens at Greenwich
Licensed Creative Arts
Therapist

Beth Liebowitz
Program Director,
The Greens at Greenwich
Licensed Creative Arts
Therapist

RSVP TODAY

Visit www.brucemuseum.org or Call 203-869-0376
Free and open to the community. Space is limited.
We will share a Zoom link with you prior to the virtual experience