A Focus on Spirituality

Spiritual life at The Greens at Greenwich is abundant. With inspiration from our Executive Director, Maria Scaros, who is a Board-Certified Clinical Chaplain, we honor the religious traditions of our residents and staff through interfaith programming. Weekly services, including Shabbat and Christian Worship, are held in our home and are led by staff who have received specialized training.

Our own Sheila Tincher recently completed her studies in ministry at St. Paul Roman Catholic Church in Greenwich and is now a certified Eucharistic Minister. Sheila's Sunday services and Wednesday Spiritual Discussions are a highlight of spiritual life at The Greens.

Between celebrating holidays and learning about different cultures, the residents experience a relationship with their own spirituality, and that of their neighbors, which is rich and inviting. With prayer, music, food, and community, we gather together in moments of contemplation and connection.
